FAIRFIELD COUNTY ARTS ASSOCIATION is a networking/social group for professional and non-professional visual artists. Meetings offer members an opportunity to be inspired by artist presentations, have their artwork discussed in a supportive atmosphere and to socialize with other members and guests. The association was established in 1984.

Dues are paid at the time of joining. Annual renewals for members are paid in March. Dues cover the cost of fees paid to speakers, room rentals, insurance, mailings, and refreshments, etc. The current dues rate is $40.

MEMBERSHIP INCLUDES:

- ❖ Free monthly newsletter and e-mail updates: Announcing art events, member news, upcoming meeting information and exhibiting opportunities.
- ❖ Free monthly presentations: Held at a facility in Fairfield or Westport, usually the second Wednesday of the month, September through June. Meetings feature an artist presentation by an FCCA member or guest followed by an opportunity for artists to show their own artwork, either completed or in progress. Comments and compliments from those in attendance are encouraged if the artist is looking for feedback. Refreshments are served.
- ❖ The July gathering is an ice cream social. The December meeting is a holiday party.
- ❖ Exhibiting Opportunities: FCCA arranges a minimum of 1 art show and sale per year.
- ❖ Website: Every member can have a webpage on the FCCA website. This is an opportunity to have your artwork displayed for worldwide exposure. You may include your contact information and bio. Ask about linking to your existing website.
- ❖ Art & Nature: There are en plein air outings to sketch, paint or photograph in outdoor settings.

To join, mail the form below to Fairfield County Arts Association, PO Box 703, Monroe, CT 06468 or pay at a meeting.
